

Alaskans for Responsible Mining

ARM is a coalition of 12 member groups--including conservation, tribal, community-based, and legal and science expertise organizations --working on mining issues in Alaska.

Greens Creek Mine
(Southeast Alaska Conservation Council)

Red Dog Mine (Northern Alaska Environmental Center)

What We Do

- Promote environmental justice and defend clean water by minimizing negative environmental and social impacts of mining in Alaska.
- Educate policy makers and communities about mining impacts on Alaska's environment, communities, and economy.
- Work with mining-affected communities to ensure they have the resources they need to maintain healthy economies, air, water and land
- Sharing knowledge, resources, and strategies to ensure safeguards for local, environmental, and social systems.

www.akmininginfo.org

Our website is "one-stop shopping" for communities and organizations dealing with mining issues in Alaska. It contains:

- Information about current mining issues in Alaska
- Guide to the permitting process
- Freedom of Information Act request templates and contact information
- Strategies for mining-affected communities
- And much more!

Cover Photo: Red Dog Mine
(Southeast Alaska Conservation Council)